

What students had to say after the tour?

“After this trip, I can definitely say that my opinion of India has changed. I did not know a lot about India prior to travelling there, but now that I have experienced it for myself, I will never believe anyone who tells me anything negative about it. Yes, India has its issues, but so does every other country. I have gained a new respect for India and I hope to be able to share even a small part of that with everyone else I encounter.”

Nicole Borstorff

“Overall, my experience in Discover India will be a journey I will not soon forget. It has given me the unbelievable chance to make new friends/family (PES-IUP students), look at the world from a global perspective, and reassure my decision regarding business as the course of life change that I want to pursue for the rest of my life.”

Herman Brooks

“I had an amazing time in India. Words could not express my experience on this trip. All the sites were absolutely amazing. I mean we have beautiful cathedrals in America, but nothing comes close to the architecture and artwork India has. Plus the students made the trip. They were so welcoming and friendly. I couldn't get over their hospitality. I made some lifetime friendships on this once-in-a-lifetime trip. At first I thought we were doomed on this trip (when our luggage was delayed by the airline). But it quickly turned around and only took ten days to fall in love with India. I have all intentions to go back and visit. Thank you for this opportunity.”

Victoria McKay

“Everywhere we went, the people had a smile on their face and a happy heart. They work with what they have, and they do everything they can to make each day better than the last. The “developed” world could do with an Indian lesson in humility and grace. I will never forget the 10 incredible days that I spent in the most astounding country I have ever visited. My only hope is that I can go back as soon as possible and enrich my life with everything else that this phenomenal country and people still have to show me.”
