- Relevant— Program strikes a perfect balance between theory, history, law, and the practical application of employment and labor relations and human resources.
- Supportive— Work one-on-one with actively engaged professors.
- Convenient— Courses meet during evening hours, accommodating your needs as either a full-time or part-time student.
- Flexible— Program offers both online or on-campus courses. Synchronized learning allows working professionals and long-distance students the ability to attend via video that allows interactions with professor and students.
- Early Admit – start a Master’s while completing your undergraduate degree.
- Dual Enrollment – Earn a degree in both Human Relations and Health Services Administration.

CAREER OUTCOMES

Make a difference in the world through job opportunities in research, government, advocacy, and education. Or you can continue to doctoral studies.
